

Maharaja Agrasen College
University of Delhi
Vasundhara Enclave, Delhi-110096

July 5, 2018

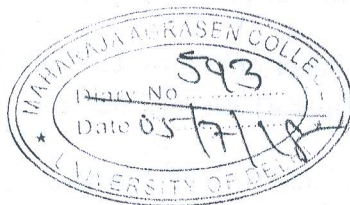

NOTICE

Students of B.A. (Prog) 2nd Year who will be promoted to 3rd Year in Academic Year 2018-19 are required to submit their preference for General Elective (GE) papers for Academic Year 2018-19 online. The details of the GE papers offered by departments are available on the college website. The last date of submitting the option is July 12, 2018. Students must take a screenshot/pic of the filled form for record.

Students must read the instruction carefully before submitting their option online.

In case students fail to do submit the option within the stipulated time period, the college shall have the right to allot the Generic Elective on its own and no request for any change in this regard shall be entertained.

Dr. Sunil Sondhi
(Principal)

Copy to:
College website
File
Students Notice Board
Dr. Vijeta Pundir

Option form instruction

Points included in the Google Form for B.A (Program) 5 Sem students

Kindly read the instructions before filling the google form.

- a) Students are required to give three GE paper preferences. List of Papers offered by different departments are given in the drop down menu of the form. The three Preferences must be filled in order of priority. The three preferences should be different.
- b) Please do not fill the option /preference paper of the main discipline which you are studying. E.g a student who is studying economics and computer application as the core papers cannot fill up GE of these departments.
- c) The Students must take a screenshot/pic of the filled form for record.
- d) Please check the list of papers carefully before filling the form. Option shall be exercise only once. Multiple form submitted by students will not be accepted the first form shall be valid.
- e) The students shall be awarded Generic Elective Paper as per the policy of the college.
- f) The college reserves the right to close/withdraw any option in case it does not receive the requisite number of preferences for any paper. In such an event, the student shall be given his next preference.
- g) Last date to submit the option is 12th July 2018 by 5:00pm.
- h) In case a student does not exercise his/her option by 12th July 2018, the college shall have the right to award him/her the G.E. Paper which shall be final.
- I) Option once allotted shall remain final and will not change.
- j) Batches finalized by the concerned committee of Generic Elective Papers shall be uploaded on the college website before the commencement of the session.

