

MAHARAJA AGRASEN COLLEGE
(University of Delhi)
Vasundhara Enclave, Delhi-1100096

NOTICE

Students of IInd and IVth Semester of all Honours Courses are required to exercise their option for choosing Generic Elective Paper for the Current Semester. The details of the paper offered by each department is given in Annexure-I.

Students are required to submit their option online only (<https://goo.gl/forms/ayPfRZvbwZJsk76i1>).

All those students who have not yet opted for Generic Elective must do so in response to the college circular dated December 21, 2016. The College will consider only first valid option exercised by the student.

The Last date has been extended till January 5, 2017. In case they fail to do so, the college shall be free to allot the Generic Elective as per suitability and no request for any change in this regard shall be entertained.

Details of GE papers which have been opened are available on the college website (<http://www.mac.du.ac.in/admissions/Generic%20Elective.php>). Such students are required to refer the time table for details of schedule of classes. Some papers where options have been received are still on hold as the batch size is less than 25. As more options will be received such papers shall be opened.
