

Maharaja Agrasen College

University of Delhi

STUDENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE & STUDENT UNION

presents

9th National Student Academic Congress

The Future of Artificial Intelligence: Scope and Challenges

One-day Interdisciplinary National Conference

Call for Papers

Best research paper in each session shall be awarded a cash prize of Rs. 3000/-

Conference Sub-themes:

Sustainable and unsustainable AI
AI Tools and Applications
Ethical dimensions of AI
AI and Global-local nexus
AI for sustainability and sustainability of AI
AI, industry, and inclusivity
Literature, culture, and AI
Indigenous AI model and practices
AI and policy initiatives
AI and Feminism
AI, Climate change and Ecological crisis

Bi-Lingual: Students can present in either Hindi or English

Open to all Undergraduates and Postgraduates Students from across India

Only for presenters from outside Delhi,
Online Mode Available

Last date to submit Abstract: 27th March 2026

Conference Date: 09 April 2026

Plagiarism will lead to immediate disqualification

For further details and themes pertaining to the conference, kindly read the CFP and follow the submission guidelines

Abstract Submission

Patron:

Prof Sanjeev Kumar Tiwari (Principal)

Convenor:

Prof Ritu Kohli

For any queries, contact: nsac@mac.du.ac.in Scan me!