“Invincible is that passion to abate,

For unstoppable is the spirit to debate”

The above lines drives Chakravier, the Debating Society of Maharaja Agrasen College. Chakravier is a pool of enthusiastic & intellectual orators who firmly believe in the immense power of speech and debate. From extempore to MUNs, the members of Chakravier specialise in every form of public speaking. In fact, the society is not only a platform that hones and seasons passionate debaters but it is also a forum that promotes the virtue of intelligent and rational thinking.

In a nutshell, Chakravier is all about robust opinions, intellect, knowledge and most importantly, the spirit to express freely. Hence goes its tagline, "I think, I speak, I am".
