

NORTH EAST SOCIETY

The North East Society of Maharaja Agrasen College, University of Delhi provides a platform to the students from North-eastern states of India to showcase the enchanting ethos of the eight North East states through various events and activities. It aims to educate people belonging to different parts of our country with the magnificent culture and history of this region. It has organised multiple events displaying the essence of the region. Over the years, the society has conducted various events such as North East Cultural Fest cum Folk Dance Competition (2019), an essay competition on ‘Relevance of Gandhi amongst the Youth in North Eastern Region’ (2020), Mahatma Gandhi Memorial Inter-College Essay Writing Competition on ‘The Unsung Freedom Fighters from North East India (2021), North Eastern Solo and Group Cultural Dance Competition (2022).

